

Do you have any pets? Have they ever shown aggression?

Are there any pools, ponds, or other water hazards?

Are medications stored out of reach and sight?

How are cleaning supplies and household chemicals stored?

Do you have firearms, ammunition, or weapons? If so, how are they secured?

Do you use car seats appropriately for travel?

Are there stairs or high places accessible to children without safety gates?

Are electrical outlets covered or otherwise childproofed?

What supervision practices do you follow during outdoor play?

SafeStayCards.com

Elementary School (Ages 6-10)

Are there screen time rules in your home?

Can children access the internet without supervision?

Do you have any parental controls on your devices?

How do you handle age-inappropriate content (e.g., movies, video games)?

What is your policy on sleepovers—bedtimes, sleeping arrangements, etc.?

Are there trampolines, bikes, skateboards, or scooters, and are helmets required?

How do you manage allergies, dietary restrictions, or special medical conditions?

Is bullying or conflict among children addressed proactively?

Do you discuss body safety and personal boundaries openly with your children?

SafeStayCards.com

Middle School (Ages 11-13)

How do you handle internet usage and social media access?

Are computers or mobile devices allowed in bedrooms or private spaces?

Do your children have access to streaming services or online gaming?

Have you discussed topics like vaping, alcohol, or substance use?

What guidelines do you have about privacy and personal boundaries at home?

How do you supervise interactions between older siblings and younger children?

Are firearms or weapons present and how securely are they stored?

Is there an emergency plan in place in your home?

What are your expectations about respectful behavior and language?

High School (Ages 14-18)

Do you openly discuss safe relationships, consent, and dating with your teens?

What policies do you have around curfew and leaving the home at night?

How do you manage driving safety and transportation arrangements?

Are alcohol or substances ever accessible in your home?

Do you have rules regarding social media usage, privacy, and cyberbullying?

How is mental health addressed in your family?

Have you discussed your family's values around sexuality, peer pressure, and decision-making?

How do you approach discipline or address problematic behavior among teens?

Is there an understanding about communicating openly regarding issues or concerns?